

Station 3: How do you define the boundaries of the business district?

On the worksheet, check the box that most appropriately describes where you think the boundaries of the business district are today, and what areas you think should be included in the future. The lines shown on this map are for suggestion and reference. Please suggest modifications on your worksheet.

